PREFACE.

The Third Part of the catalogue of Mr. Brinley's library is now offered to the public. It comprises 1717 lots, and about twenty-seven hundred titles. A list of some of the rarest and most important works, is subjoined. Among them will be found several volumes of extraordinary rarity, any one of which would suffice to make the approaching sale noteworthy in the annals of bibliography.

First of the first, by double right of primogeniture, stands (No. 5839) the GUTENBERG or "MAZARINE" BIBLE, eldest-born of all the issue of the press; concerning which, see, in its place, a too-long note. Since that note was in type an imperfect copy of the Gutenberg Old Testament, only, has been sold at Sotheby's (Feb. 15th), for £760.

Next to the first-printed book of the Old World may be named one of the first books printed in the New (RIKEL, No. 5317); a volume as fresh and bright as it came from Juan Cromberger's press, in Mexico, in 1544, — a land-mark in typography, half-way from Gutenberg and the First Bible, to Stephen Daye and the Bay Psalm Book of 1640.

Then follows, only a few years later, from "the house of Juan Pablos," in the same city, the first edition of MOLINA'S Mexican Dictionary (No. 5771); a book so rare that even the indefatigable Ludewig doubted its existence, and of which only five extant copies are known to bibliography.

Next, in order of time, is (5682) ELIOT'S INDIAN BIBLE, represented not merely by a single or an ordinary copy, but by one of the first edition and of the "Royal" type (with the Dedication), in its well-preserved original binding; a well-known copy, described seventeen years ago as "the crowning glory" of Mr. John Allan's library; and two fine copies of the revised second edition of 1680-85, one of which (5683) formerly belonged to Gov. Stoughton of Massachusetts, the other to Jonathan Edwards.

Rarer even than Eliot's, in either edition, is (5791) SAUR'S GERMAN BIBLE of 1743, the First Bible printed in America in a European language; and scarcely less rare (5800), its third edition, of 1776.

Of other exceptional rarities, the two editions of BERNARD ROMANS's History of Florida (4365–6), and (5531) a copy — in fact two copies of INCREASE MATHER's Brief History of the War with the Indians, Boston, 1676, will not escape the observation of book-lovers.

Like its predecessors, the Third Part of the catalogue will be found rich in First Works and First Editions. Mr. Brinley's collection of Bibles, for instance, though small in number of volumes, includes not only the first printed Bible, and the first American edition (Eliot's), but the first Pennsylvania (Saur's), the first New Jersey (5808), the first New York (5809), the first Connecticut (5825), the first Quarto and Folio (5809) editions; the first Greek Testament (5820), and the first Hebrew Bible (5829) printed in this country; and many of the first editions of the Bible and parts of the Bible in various languages of the American Indians.

The catalogue is not less rich in the extent and completeness of special collections: such as that of American Biography and Personal History, Nos. 5087–5302 (to be supplemented, hereafter, by more than twelve hundred Pamphlets); of the Military and Naval History of the United States, especially, the history of the last War with Great Britain, 1812–14; of works relating to the American Indians, and their Languages (among which the very rare Mexican imprints deserve special mention); of early American Music; and of American versions of the Psalms, and Hymns (of which about a hundred volumes remain to be catalogued in the Fourth Part); and, not the least remarkable, the collection of New-England Primers and Catechisms, which is, probably, unequalled in any public or private library.

When the Second Part of this catalogue was published, last spring, it was hoped that the Third and Fourth would be printed before the end of the year. This was found to be impossible. The general arrangement of the Fourth (and last) Part is completed, and a portion of the copy is already in the hands of the printers. It will comprise small collections in Law, Medicine, Agriculture, and other Arts and Sciences, and Bibliography: and larger collections, on Episcopacy and the history of the Episcopal Church in the United States; the Methodists, Baptists, and other denominations; Education, including early School Books; Chap Books; American Poetry and the Drama; General Literature, including early American editions of English authors; Classified Pamphlets; ADDENDA to Parts First and Second, and Duplicates; Broadsides, Maps and Prints, etc.

A large and fine copy of this EXTREMELY RARE volume. "No copy has been found with either of the whole-sheet Maps, and all are more or less deficient in the number of Plates referred to in the title page. From the arrangement and tenor of the title, as well as from the sense of the 'Advertisement' at the end of the volume, we are clearly of opinion that it was the Author's design to distribute the 'twelve copper plates, and two whole sheet maps,' throughout the two volumes into which he intended to divide the work." — Menzies Catalogue, no. 1722.

The second volume was never published : and in copies of the work issued in 1776 (see the following number) "Vol. I." disappears from the title-page. The copperplates were designed and engraved by the author. They are (1) Frontispiece, Vol. I. (2) Dedication "To John Ellis Esqr.," the naturalist, "Agent for the Province of West Florida." (3) Avena aquatica Sylvestris (Wild Oats), facing p. 31. (4) "Characteristick Chicasaw Head," p. 59. (5) Characteristick Chactaw Busts, p. 62. (6) Treatment of the dead, by the Chactaws, p. 89. (7) Characteristick head of a Creek War Chief, p. 92. Maps in the Appendix : (8) Entrance of Tampa Bay, p. lxxviii ; (9) Pensacola Bay, p. lxxxi ; (10) Mobile Bar, p. lxxxv.

These letters, first printed in the Boston "Federal Gazette," have sometimes been attributed to Alexander Hamilton. They were written by the Hon. Uriah Tracy, U. S. Senator from Connecticut, 1796–1807. They attracted the attention of Gen. Washington, and excited his curiosity as to their authorship. In January, 1798, he wrote to Oliver Wolcott: "Mr. Monroe, I am told, appears in a voluminous work!.. A writer under the signature of Scipio, will, I conceive, work him pretty well. Who is Scipio? I am fishing for no secrets, but if the author is known, or conjectured on good grounds, I should like to know who he is." Wolcott replied: "I have good grounds for believing Mr. Tracy to be the author of 'Scipio'; but this is not, and I believe will not be generally known."

Gothic Letter. No title-page: 12 leaves, not numbered. With the book-plate of the Emperor Maximilian; no. 2667 of the Catalogue Andrade, where it is described as a "volume D'UNÉ RARÈTE EXTRAORDINAIRE qui est regarde comme le SECOND LIVRE imprimé en Mexique. EXEMPLAIRE MAGNIFIQUE."

The copy is really "magnificent,"—bright and clean as when it first came from the press of Juan Cromberger, three hundred and thirty-six years ago—almost a hundred years before the Bay Psalm Book was printed at Cambridge.

Its title to be reckoned the second book printed in America has been questioned, some bibliographers maintaining that a press was established in Mexico as early as 1541, but as to its EXTRAORDINARY RARITY—or the interest which attaches to it as ONE OF THE EARLIEST PRODUCTIONS OF THE PRESS IN AMERICA, there can be no difference of opinion.

Some of the author's observations are, certainly, "curieuses": see, in Chap. VII. his "polissoneries philosophiques" (pp. 56-62) in reply to DePauw's assertions of the moral and physical inferiority of the Americans.

5356 Apes. A Son of the Forest. The Experience of Wm. Apes, a Native of the Forest, comprising a Notice of the Pequod Tribe of Indians. Written by himself. hf. bd. 18° New York, 1829

Apes was a humbug. He claimed to be "a descendant of one of the principal chiefs of the Pequod Tribe so well known in that part of American history called King Philip's War. This tribe inhabited a part of Connecticut and lived . . in the town of Groton, and was commanded by King Philip." The story helps us to estimate the value of Indian "tradition," so termed. The Pequod tribe was blotted out about forty years before "King Philip's war," and neither King Philip nor his tribe (the Wampanoags) ever lived in or near Connecticut. Apes had, probably, some Narragansett blood; his father was a half-breed, he says; and he was born in Coleraine, Mass. He certainly was not a "Pequod."

65. 5512 Cresap. A Biographical Sketch of the Life of the late Capt. Michael Cresap [by John J. Jacob], with many manuscript corrections by the author, pp. 123, 1, VERY SCARCE.
12° Cumberland, Md., for the Author, by J. M. Buchanan, 1826

On the guard leaf is written: "A. A. Browne from John J. Jacob, Esq. of Hampshire County, Virginia, late a Captain in the Maryland Line, in the Revolutionary War," and below: "Presented by A. A. Browne to Edw. D. Ingraham, 1832."

This account of Capt. Cresap's life, and services in "Dunmore's War," was written in refutation of the charges made against him by Mr. Jefferson (in the Notes on Virginia,) of the murder of Logan's family, and of the statements in Dr. Doddridge's account of Dunmore's War. The author had been from boyhood an inmate of Capt. Cresap's family, and married his widow, in 1781.

Two other scarce pieces are bound in the same volume:—

Memoirs of Andrew Sherburne, a Pensioner of the Navy of the Revolution. Written by himself. Utica, Wm. Williams, 1828.

By the Rev. Dr. Jos. Doddridge, pp. (10), v–316, clean, unused copy, sheep.
12° Wellsburgh, Va., for the Author, 1824

Very Scarce, and valuable for its pictures of the times within the recollection of the author. The title-page, as given by Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 20490) and Mr. Field, seems to have been re-printed after the author's death (Nov., 1826), describing him as "the late Rev. Joseph Doddridge."

"This work is the production of a gentleman who was reared in the wilderness, and was intimately acquainted with the whole subject on which he writes; it is drawn from original sources, and almost entirely from personal observation."—Thomson's Bibl. of Ohio, no. 331.

Loudon,* 1808, 1811 [illegible]

A SURPASSINGLY FINE copy of this "RAREST of books on American history." In condition, it leaves to the most fastidious and exacting of collectors nothing to be desired. The binding is in Mr. Bedford's best style.

For the collation, see Field's Indian Bibliography, p. 248,—which, by the way, omits mention of the very curious wood-engraving of Delaware "hieroglyphics," on p. 324 of Vol. I.

5530 Loudon (Arch.) A Selection of Some of the most interesting Narratives, etc. ANOTHER COPY. 2 vols., polished blue calf, extra gilt, g. e. (W. Pratt). sm. 12° Carlisle, A. Loudon, 1808, 1811 1.50—

A BEAUTIFUL COPY, but,—by fault of the original binder—it wants a signature (pp. 17–28) of Vol. I. With it is an extra copy of Vol. I. (in the original binding) to supply the missing pages; the three volumes will be sold as two.

5531 MATHER (Increase) A Brief History of the Warr With the Indians in New-England, (From June 24, 1675, when the first English-man was murdered by the Indians, to August 12, 1676, when Philip, alias Metacomet, the Principal Author and Beginner of the Warr, was slain,) Wherein the Grounds, Beginning, and Progress of the Warr, is summarily expressed. Together with a Serious Exhortation to the Inhabitants of that Land. By Increase Mather, Teacher of a Church of Christ, in Boston in New-England . . . Narrative (2 copies) pp. (6), 51, (1 blk.), Postcript, 8; Exhortation, pp. (2), 26. 3 vols. sold as 2 vols.
sm. 4° Boston, John Foster over against the Sign of the Dove, 1676

These two imperfect copies of an EXCEEDINGLY RARE book, are offered, as they were put together by Mr. Brinley to be sent to Mr. F. Bedford for binding, with the following note: —

> "One best copy to be made, which may be the largest, and cleanest (if possible); but at least let it be genuine throughout. The Second copy [of the "Brief History"] to have the missing portions replaced by careful facsimile, — the missing portions being a piece of the title, pp. 15, 16, and a few words at the end. . I do not care about preserving any of the MSS. notes, if a cleaner piece of work can be made by washing them off: but as they are nearly contemporary, I think they cannot be successfully removed . . I rely more upon the judgment of Mr. Bedford than I do upon my own . . . The "Serious Exhortation," is mentioned in the title-page of the "History," but is rarely found with it. I wish to have it bound uniform with the best copy of the 'History.'"

The larger copy of the "Brief History," formerly belonged to the Rev. Zechariah Symmes, of Charlestown (Harv. Coll., 1657,) whose autograph is on the margin of p. 1, and the underscoring and marginal notes are doubtless his. This copy was interleaved by the late Samuel G. Drake, and contains several manuscript notes in his hand.

The second best copy of the "History" is imperfect, as before mentioned; but the last page, of the "Postcript," with the Errata, is complete, and supplies the slight deficiency of the other copy.

The "Serious Exhortation" is a GOOD COPY, complete throughout (except a name cut from upper margin of Title) and is handsomely half bound, in black morocco.

The three volumes will be sold as two; enabling the purchaser to perfect one copy of one of the RAREST OF AMERICAN BOOKS, and, with the aid of the facsimilist and binder, to secure a second complete and desirable copy of the "Brief History," — of which Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 46,640) observes that "two copies only are known: Mr. Brinley's and one in England." One of Mr. Brinley's copies was sold with the First Part of his library, in 1879 (No. 948). In the hurried preparation of the Catalogue the other two were overlooked.

5532 Metcalf (Samuel L.) A Collection of some of the most interesting Narratives of Indian Warfare in the West, containing an Account of the Adventures of Col. Daniel Boone, . . . also, an Account of the Manners and Customs of the Indians, etc.; . . added, an Account of the Expeditions of Gen'ls Harmer, Scott, Wilkinson, St. Clair, & Wayne, pp. 270, fine portrait of Boone inserted. Lexington, Wm. G. Hunt, 1821 — A Narrative of the Captivity and Sufferings of Benj. Gilbert and his Family, in 1780. Philadelphia, Jos. Crukshank, 1784. Two in 1 vol., both large and fine copies; a selection of newspaper cuttings inserted (in an envelope), half bound, neat. 8°

Metcalf's Collection has, (as Mr. Field observes) "become as rare as the works it sought to preserve from oblivion. Every succeeding year brings with it an augmentation of the price at which it is sold . . . It will probably always preserve its rank among rare and costly books." — Ind. Bibliography, p. 274. Mr. Brinley's copy (formerly E. D. Ingraham's) is exceptionally large and fine, nearly UNCUT.

The FIRST EDITION of Gilbert's Narrative is scarcely less rare.

Israel*, 1831 23

"Of this scarce book, very few copies are complete or in good condition ... Most of the copies lack the table of contents." The work "is considered by Western antiquarians the best collection of frontier life and Indian warfare, that has been printed." — Field. This copy (like the following, and three other copies I have seen in their original binding and in good condition) has no table of contents, and the make-up of the last signature — which has four blank pages after the Advertisement — shows that the addition of this table, in a portion of the edition, was an after-thought. "One of the best collections of narratives of frontier life and Indian Warfare. It ranks favorably with 'Doddridge's Notes,' and is even more scarce than that work." — Thompson's Bibl. of Ohio.

At the head of the title is the (partially defaced) autograph of Sir Wm. Ashhurst, who was a prominent member (and became Governor) of the Corporation for Propagating the Gospel in New England.

The Allan copy has long been known to collectors, as one of the largest, finest, and most desirable of all known "Royal" or Dedication copies. Only twenty copies of this description were sent to England, by order of the Corporation, for presentation to the Universities and to such persons as the Governor of the Corporation should think fit. These were bound in England, and probably in uniform style.

One blank leaf; Title (Indian), 1 leaf; Old Test., A to Ppppp, in fours; names of the Books, 1 leaf, recto blank; N. Test., Title (as above), 1 leaf, verso blank; Text, A2 to (recto of) Kk 2; Psalms in Metre, 53 n. n., Kk 3 to Yy 4; Catechism, 1 leaf.

Elegantly bound (by Mr. F. Bedford) in levant black morocco, extra, filleted and paneled sides, richly ornamented, gilt edges, double vellum guard-leaves. Size of page, 7¼ by 5⅝ inches.

On the verso of the blank leaf preceding the Title, are the autographs of two former owners, William Stoughton (Chief Justice and Lieut.-Governor of Massachusetts, died, 1701,) and the Rev. John Danforth, 1713. (The latter married the neice of Gov. Stoughton.)

A very fine copy, remarkably free from stain and set-off. Only the first few leaves show any evidence of having been used. The head of the title-leaf and of the first leaf of text have been mended (to the width of about a quarter of an inch.)

While the First Edition of Eliot's Bible is the more attractive to collectors of rare Americana, and deserves the pre-eminence that is accorded to it, as a monument of early American typography and as the first version of the Bible printed in the New World, it should not be forgotten that, to students of the American languages and to the general philologist, the Second is the more valuable; and that all critical references to Eliot's version are, or should be, made to this revised and corrected edition.

In levant red morocco extra gilt, sides and back elaborately tooled, in an elegant design, gauffered gilt edges, vellum linings and guard-leaves. The binding is one of Mr. Bedford's master-pieces. The volume has been skillfully cleaned throughout, the margins of some short and worn leaves extended, and the deficiencies, if any were found, are supplied in facsimile so perfect as to escape detection. It will be observed, from the collation, that by the binder's mistake, the "Catechism" which belongs at the end of the volume has been inserted at the end of the Old Testament.

6.50 5694 — MANUSCRIPT BOOK OF PRAYERS, etc., in the Mareschit (or Maliseet) and Caniba dialects.

A little volume of 82 pages (measuring 5 by 2½ inches) written by some French missionary to the Abnakis. It is complete and well-preserved, though its pages bear traces of long and frequent use. It formerly belonged to Dr. John Pickering, to whom it was presented by Bishop (and Cardinal) Cheverus.

It contains "Prière du Matin, en Marichit," "Cantique," "Prière du Soir, en Caniba," "Prière avant la Confession," "Interrogation pour la Confession," "Prières avant [et apres] la Communion," "Catechisme," "Manière de Baptiser," etc.

The mission for which this manual was compiled included Indians of at least two tribes, the Canibas, of whose principal dialect Rasles has given us a vocabulary, and the Etchemins and Mareschites, on and near the St. John's River. "We read in the relations of the Jesuits, that the Canibas, the Etchemins, and other Indians of different tribes lived together in one village," under the instruction of the missionary Fathers (Maurault, Hist. des Abenakis, 9); and it is not improbable that this manual contains translations made early in the 17th century, and preserved in manuscript copies by successive missionaries.

⁂ This will be sold with the privilege of the following number (5695).

5695 — (MANUSCRIPT) Prieres des Sauvages Abnakis de St. Francois. 6.75

Legibly and neatly written, on 32 pages (7 by 3½ inches), clean and well-preserved. On the first blank-leaf (of which only a portion remains) Mr. Brinley has written. "Purchased at the sale of the Library of Hon. John Pickering, Boston, 1846. This MS. was presented to Mr. Pickering by Bishop Cheverus."

The writing resembles that of the preceding volume and is probably by the same hand; but it shows that the writer has become more familiar both with the language and with the pen. The character used by the French missionaries for ou or English w (8) is employed, and the nasals are marked as in Rasles's Dictionary, by ñ. In addition to the prayers contained in the earlier manual, it has the Litanies of the Virgin, and of the Holy Name of Jesus, the Psalms and Antiphons for Vespers, and the hymns "Lucis Creator" and "Veni Creator."

Title, 1 leaf; The Order for Morning Prayer daily throughout the year, pp. 1–16; The Litany, pp. 17–24; The Church Catechism, pp. 1–9; [Various] Prayers, pp. 10–18.

EXTREMELY RARE. It may have been printed at the instance of the Rev. Dr. Eleazer Wheelock, or by the Boston Commissioners of the (Scotch) Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge, for the use of the missionaries and school-masters sent from New England to the Six Nations.

Wm. Weyman was employed by Sir Wm. Johnson, in 1762, to print a new edition of the Mohawk Prayer-Book, and began the work early in 1763, under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Barclay. Its progress was interrupted by the death of Dr. Barclay, in 1764, and less than half the book was printed when Weyman died, in July, 1768. In the meantime several missionaries had gone from New England to the Six Nations; Mr. Cornelius Bennett, a catechist of the Episcopal church, was teaching school among the Mohawks in 1764: Mr. C. J. Smith (accompanied by young Joseph Brant) and the Rev. Samuel Kirtland went, the same year, from Lebanon, as missionaries to the same field—sent by the Boston Commissioners, and several others were preparing themselves at Lebanon for this mission. This Prayer-Book and Catechism was probably printed for the use of these missionaries and their Indian scholars. It seems to be a reprint, so far as it goes, of the first edition (Wm. Bradford, 1715), omitting the "Several Chapters of the Old and New Testament"; and founded, like that edition, on the translations made "by Mr. Freeman, a very worthy Calvinist minister." See Humphreys' Hist. Account, p. 302.

The latter part of the volume, from Acts ii. 46, was printed at Oahu, at the Mission Press, and at the end of the New Testament is the colophon: "Oahu; Mission Press, May, 1832: Ed. 10,000."

A press was sent to the Sandwich Islands by the American Board of Comm'rs for Foreign Missions, in November, 1827: and among its first works was the completion of the Hawaiian version of the New Testament of which the first part (the Four Gospels and beginning of the Acts) had been printed at Rochester, in 1828 and '29.

This copy, unused and in nice condition, was presented to "Rev. T. H. Gallaudet, from his friend, H[iram] Bingham, Oahu, Dec. 18, 1832."

This First Edition of the Hawaiian Testament was unknown to Dr. O'Callaghan, and is now very rare. (See Nos. 5846–5848.)

THE GUTENBERG BIBLE.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED WITH TYPES.

[illegible] 5839 The BIBLE, in Latin; with the prologue of Saint Jerome. The First Edition. Gothic type: hundreds of illuminated capital letters, brilliantly colored and decorated, many of them heightened with gold. 2 vols. In the original binding, thick oak boards covered with stamped calf, ornamented brass corners and center-pieces, with bosses; many leaves with uncut edges; measuring 15¾ by 11½ inches, on the leaf.
folio [MENTZ, JOANNES GUTENBERG, 1450–55?]

Without titlepages, pagination, or signatures: 641 leaves printed in double columns, 42 lines to a full column; the initials and rubrics, in manuscript, throughout. The first volume contains 324 leaves, (of which one is in facsimile) and ends with the Psalms; the second has 317 leaves (sixteen in facsimile).

A copy on vellum in the National Library in Paris, has at the end of the second volume a note, that it was "illuminated, bound, and completed, on the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary (Aug. 15), 1456, by Henricus Albch, alias Cremer."

"The honour of producing the first, and as many think, the most perfect book, is now ascribed to Gutenberg alone, Fust not coming in for a share of the credit of the invention until after his famous lawsuit in 1455, when the Bible had been finished. We call it, therefore, the GUTENBERG BIBLE, and have no sympathy for any French name given to it simply because a copy found in a Paris library had the honour of being described by a French bookseller." — H. STEVENS (in Caxton Celebration Catalogue). It was formerly known as the "Mazarine Bible," from the fact that the earliest published description of it, was based on a copy discovered by DeBure, in the Mazarine Library.

"Some copies, which may be called a SECOND ISSUE, have 40 lines on each of the first eight pages, forty-one on the ninth, and the rest forty-two. . In the later issue, the three red lines at the beginning, are in type and not in manuscript, as in the 42 line issue." The distinctions between the two issues are pointed out by Mr. B. Quaritch, in his description of the Perkins copy (priced, 3000 guineas,) in his General Catalogue, no. 17545. It may be added, that, in the first volume of the Brinley copy, the beginning of the prologue to the Pentateuch (recto of 4th leaf), of the book of Genesis (recto of 5th leaf), and the title and finis (Incipit and Explicit) of each of the books from Genesis to Ruth, inclusive, are rubricated in manuscript, not printed.

Mr. Brinley's copy was purchased in 1873, through the agency of Mr. H. Stevens, in London. It had been discovered, a few years previously, in the Archiv of the Predigerkirche of Erfurt. A very full and accurate description of it was published in the Serapeum (Aug. 15th and 31st, 1870; pp. 230, 241, ff.) by Dr. Bruno Stübel of Leipsic, who had the rare opportunity of collating "the new-found forty-two-line copy" with two other copies, one from the Munich Library, the other from the Library of Leipsic.

The Gutenberg Bible has, as Dibdin remarks in his description of Earl Spencer's copy, been "justly praised for the strength and beauty of the paper, the exactness of the register, the lustre of the ink, and the general splendor and magnitude of the volumes." In Asher's announcement, in 1873, the Brinley copy is claimed to be "the most beautiful of all known copies on paper. It is not only the tallest, and almost uncut, but it is of remarkable freshness and purity, and, though it has never been subjected to washing, is without the least stain. . . One sees by the costliness of its binding and by the beauty of its painted initials, heightened with gold and decorated in arabesques, that it was intended for the library of some prince or great nobleman. This exceptional excellence brought it ill fortune; for some barbarian, or crazed amateur, has taken from it a few leaves, doubtless for the sake of their capital letters." By extraordinary good luck some ancient paper was found, like that on which the Bible was printed, and the missing leaves were reproduced in photolithographic facsimile, with such success that it is not easy to distinguish them.

The copy is so nearly uncut that many of the manuscript cues for the rubricator, are preserved at the extreme upper margins of the leaves.

Very few errors of the press have been discovered in this first edition of the Bible. One, in Isaiah xxxvii. 20, "ponā circulū ergo in auribus [for naribus] tuis," has been noticed by Dibdin and Pettigrew. Another, in the beginning of Psalm xxx. (xxxi. of the English Bible), has been corrected in the Brinley copy, probably by the rubricator, by marking a caret in the text and writing the omitted word "speravi" in the margin.

This is the first time—and it is not unlikely to be the last—that a copy of the First Printed Book is offered at public sale, in this country.

In 1769, a vellum copy brought, at the Gaignat sale, 2100 francs: in 1815, the same copy, at the McCarthy-Reagh sale, was purchased by Mr. Grenville, for 6260 francs. Mr. Perkins's (vellum) copy, with two leaves in facsimile, was bought by him in 1825, from Messrs. G. & W. Nicol, for £504: in 1873, it was sold at £3,400. Of the best known paper copies, that belonging to the Duke of Sussex was bought at Perry's sale, for £168; was sold in 1841, for £190; and in 1858, at the Bishop of Cashel's sale, for £596. The Perkins copy—the only one which came into the market for sixteen years after 1858—was purchased at Sir M. M. Sykes's sale, for £199.10; and was sold in 1873, for £2,690. At every sale, the advance in price had been marked: and the commercial value of copies has been at least quintupled in the last thirty years. What may it reach in the next fifty?

Pearl type. Title engraved, by L. Lucas, with "The names and order of all the Books," on the verso. This is probably a Dutch counterfeit of the "Pearl Bible" printed by Field in 1653.—H. Stevens, in Caxton Celebration Catalogue, no. 1127. The genuine edition has some curious errors which have been corrected in the counterfeit: e. g. "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God?"—in 1 Cor. vi. 9: "Neither yield ye your members as instruments of righteousness unto sin," Rom. vi. 13; and the famous error in Acts vi. 3,—"whom ye may appoint," etc.,—for introducing which into the text, it was rumored, "that Field received a present of £1500. from the Independents." The fact is, however, that Field merely copied the error from an earlier edition printed with the imprimatur of Archbishop Laud.

612. 5865 The | New-England | Primer | Enlarged. | For the more easy attaining the true | Reading of English. | To which is added, | The Assembly of Divines | Catechism. | Boston: Printed by T. Fleet, | and Sold by the Booksellers, 1737.

40 leaves, n. n. On the recto of the first leaf, an awesome woodcut of "The Pope, or Man of Sin," fearfully and wonderfully made: on the reverse, the head of "King George the Second," facing the Title. The familiar rhymes—from "In Adam's Fall | We sinned all," to "Zaccheus he | Did climb the Tree | His Lord to see,"—with their twenty-four illustrative woodcuts, are on leaves 6 and 7. Mr. John Rogers burns at Smithfield, "his Wife, with nine small Children, and one at her Breast, following him to the Stake," on the 16th leaf.

— The New-England Primer Improved. For the more easy attaining the true reading of English. To which is added, The Assembly of Divines, and Mr. Cotton's Catechism. Boston: Printed for, and Sold by John Perkins, in Union-Street. 1768.

40 leaves, n. n. (A to E) in eights. Cotton's Catechism (entitled "Spiritual Milk for American Babes. Drawn out of the Breasts of both Testaments") was printed in the earliest editions of the Primer, but was omitted in that of 1737: as was also "A Dialogue between Christ, Youth and the Devil," which is restored in this edition. The copy perhaps wants a leaf preceding the title.

— The New-England Primer Improved ... To which is added, The Assembly of Divines Catechism, &c. Boston, William McAlpine, 1770.

Sigs. A to E8, in eights. A leaf preceding the title has, on the recto, the head of "King George the Third Crown'd September 22d, 1761, Whom God long Preserve"; on the reverse, "A Divine Song of Praise" by Dr. Watts. This edition agrees page for page with that of 1768, but is in larger type and on larger paper.

— The AMERICAN Primer Improved, etc. Concord: Printed and sold by N. Coverly, . . 1776.

40 leaves, n. n. (A to E8) in eights. On the first leaf, a head, which evidently was intended for that of King George III., serves for "The Hon. John Hancock, Esquire." In other respects, this is a reprint of the Primers of 1768 and 1770.

— The same. Boston: Printed by Edward Draper, . . and sold by John Boyle, 1777.

40 leaves (A to E) in eights. On the first leaf, recto, "The Honorable JOHN HANCOCK, Esq. President of the American Congress," displaces King George.

— The New-England Primer, Enlarged and Improved: or an easy and pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts. Also the Catechism. Newburyport: Printed and sold by John Mycall, n. d. [1790.]

40 leaves, n. n. (A. to E8) in eights. This differs in many respects from any of the preceding editions. There are more woodcuts, some of which are copied from Isaiah Thomas's "Royal Primer" of 1785. Mr. Cotton's Catechism is omitted. [The first two leaves of the Westminster Catechism are misplaced by the binder.]

6 vols. sm. 16° (32°), elegantly bound in best levant brown morocco, backs full-gilt, sides filleted and panel-gilt, with centre ornaments, g. e. (F. Bedford); in a str. grained olive morocco Solander case, lined with velvet, and lettered.

It is unnecessary to remark on the EXTREME RARITY of early editions of this Primer,—which has been called "the little Bible of New England." The late Mr. George Livermore, one of the most persevering and successful collectors of early Catechisms and Primers, in one of a series of articles on the origin and history of the N. E. Primer (published in 1849,) said: "I have not been able to find a copy of the work bearing an earlier date than the year 1775 . . Nor have I seen a person who has seen a copy of an earlier date."

5866 The New-England Primer (and others); 1784–1802:— 3.84.

— The New-England Primer Improved, etc. Boston: Printed and sold by the Booksellers, 1784.

32 leaves, n. n. (A to D8) in eights. Follows the standard editions, but omits Mr. Cotton's Catechism. On the first page a woodcut head of "General Washington," in an oval, surrounded by military trophies.

— The Royal Primer; or, An Easy and Pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts, pp. 72. Worcester, Mass., Isaiah Thomas, 1784.

This has little in common with the New England Primer, but may have been a more attractive book to some of the boys and girls of its day. It contents "A short Scripture Catechism," but not the Westminster Assembly's, nor Mr. Cotton's. There are woodcuts of animals and birds, and in illustration of Bible stories; and the cuts are far superior to those in earlier editions of the N. E. Primer. It is probably a reprint of an English primer.

— The New-England Primer; much improved. Containing, A Variety of Easy Lessons, for attaining the true reading of English. 40 leaves, n. n. (A and B, in twelves; C, D, in eights.) Philadelphia, T. Dobson, 1797.

No woodcuts, except one of the burning of John Rogers (in which, by the way, Mrs. Rogers's "nine small children and one at her breast" may be fairly enumerated). A very pretty edition.

— The American Primer. Improved. Or, an easy and pleasant Guide to the Art of Reading. Adorned with Cuts. To which is added, The Assembly of Divine's Catechism. Medford: Nathaniel Coverly, 1798.

— The New-England Primer, Or, the first Step to The Art of Reading. To which are Added, The Shorter Catechism, And many Things proper for Children. Revised, Corrected, and Improved, pp. 79, cuts. Worcester, Isaiah Thomas, n. d. [1802]
A fresh clean copy of this handsome edition.

8° Boston, J. Franklin, for T. Fleet, 1722

One of the RAREST tracts from James Franklin's press. It was unknown to Hood, who mentions Symmes's "Discourse concerning Prejudice" etc., printed the same year (see No. 5882), and [Mather's] "Pacificatory Letter" of Dec. 1723.

Walter dedicated his Sermon to Paul Dudley, as, "with respect to its Publication, the First-Fruits of [his] Young Minister."

sm. 8° Boston, S. Kneeland, for S. Gerrish, 1722

"Though the words 'music' and 'singing' do not once occur in it, yet it was aimed at and, to use the words of the preface, 'partly occasioned by, a most unhappy and unreasonable controversy about Singing by Note.'"—HOOD'S Hist. of Music in N. E., p. 113. It is dedicated to the Second Church in Newbury, "of which the Rev. Mr. John Tufts is Pastor." The Preface is dated, Bradford, Dec. 27, 1721.

On the last leaf is an advertisement of books sold by Samuel Gerrish, including "A very plain and easy Introduction to the Art of Singing Psalm Tunes," by Mr. Tufts, and "The Grounds and Rules of Musick explained," etc., by the Rev. Mr. Thomas Walter. (See Nos. 5885 and 5886.)

long 12° Boston, J. F[ranklin], for S. Gerrish, 1721

This is believed to be the FIRST MUSIC BOOK printed in this country. Coffin in his Annals of Newbury (p. 185) says it was first published in 1714. Hood (Hist. of Music in N. E., p. 65) says, "about the year 1712;" but adds, that "having never seen this work, he is unable to give any account of it, or its contents," having gained his only knowledge of it "from its advertisement on the blank page of the Rev. Mr. Symmes's discourse 'Concerning Prejudice in Matters of Religion,'"—which was published in 1722 (see, ante, No. 5882). The full title (or description) given in that advertisement, is: "A very plain and easy Introduction to the Art of Singing Psalm Tunes; With the Cantus or Trebles of Twenty eight Psalm Tunes, contrived in such a manner as that the Learner may attain the Skill of Singing them with the greatest ease and Speed imaginable. By the Rev. Mr. John Tufts." On the same page is advertised "The Grounds and Rules of Musick Explained," by the Rev. Thomas Walter (No. 5886). Both were "to be sold by Samuel Gerrish."

This copy, though not quite complete, is in good condition, and retains half of its original marbled wrapper. The Introduction occupies four pages, with the imprint (as above) in colophon. The number of Tunes is sixteen. In printing them letters are used upon the staff instead of notes; F, S, L, M, for Fa, Sol, La, Mi, (see Hood, p. 66.) The Cantus (Treble) only is given. There are no bars, except for marking the end of the lines and verses.

Title, 1 leaf; Recommendatory Preface signed by Increase and Cotton Mather and 13 other Ministers, 3 pp.; Explanation of Musical Characters, 1 p.; Instructions, etc., pp. 1–24 (wanting one leaf, pp. 7, 8); Rules for Tuning the Voice, 1 p.; Engraved Music, 15 pages. In this copy several additional tunes are scored, in manuscript.

VERY RARE. "The First music printed with bars, in America."—Hood, p. 77. "The tunes are composed in three parts only; and are made up of half and whole notes. . The harmony is full, rich, and correct, and the whole style, purely choral."

Hood had not seen this (first) edition, nor the edition of 1746, but took his title of the work from that of 1760–63, printed by B. Mecom.
